

Ruth's work a winner

THE $5000 SECWA-Fremantle Council Art Prize has been shared by two artists for the second consecutive year.

An etching by John Loss, of East Victoria Park, and a sculpture by Ruth Graham, of Victoria Park, are this year's winners.

Almost 70 of the 170 entries will be on display at the energy museum until December 11.

The winners were announced by Fremantle mayor John Cattalini and SECWA commissioner Norm White at the Energy Museum.

Ruth Graham shows her winning sculpture to SECWA commissioner Norm White.
